

Psychology Instructor (overseas)

Gain Contact Group, LLC is a U.S. based company that aims at improving target lifestyle areas by developing the knowledge, competencies, and insights of individuals and organizations. Through the delivery of its programs and services under the flagship of its three subsidiary brands: Gain Self focusing on personal development, Gain Learning providing educational counseling and placement services, and Gain Ville offering multicultural programs and global citizenship education, Gain Contact Group caters to a niche market interested in developing competence in target lifestyle areas.

Job Description:

Gain Contact Group is seeking a Psychology Instructor who will provide instruction for online Psychology courses for a college student living overseas. The successful candidate will be required to carry out regularly scheduled instruction sessions, ensuring student awareness of course objectives, approach, and evaluation techniques while defining, evaluating, and validating learning outcomes. The instructor facilitates meaningful learning of the course competencies in the curriculum and proactively supports all facets of the learning environment. She encourages a culture of learning that values mutual responsibility and respect, life-long learning and ethics as well as personal and professional development.

Required Education/Skills:

Minimum Masters of Science with 18 graduate semester hours in Psychology is required or Masters Degree in Psychology is preferred. Experience with distance education is also preferred. Other post-secondary teaching experience is an asset. Please supply three references with your application

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Provides competency-based education at the college level
- Teach courses as assigned in accordance with the established syllabi.
- Designs and delivers class instruction through the development of instructional plans to meet course competencies, the development of activities which support lesson objectives
- Prepare and/or maintain current course syllabi/course outlines/classroom expectations for each course taught.
- Manages the learning environment through keeping accurate academic records, and submitting reports on time .
- Research and recommend adequate instructional materials for courses taught. Provide, prepare and maintain adequate classroom and enables the achievement of pre-described exit competencies for student achievement and evaluation of learning by providing instruction which fosters competencies and establish student performance criteria and evaluation.
- Promotes student success by showing flexibility in style and work schedule as well as exhibiting a passion for teaching students and engaging students in the learning process.
- Relates professional/life/industry experience to learning by the continuation of professional/technical skills development, the introduction of industry perspective into courses, and the active awareness of professional/industry trends and opportunities.

Professional/Personal Characteristics Preferred:

- Thorough knowledge of counseling theory and practice
- Engaging interpersonal skills & strong speaking/writing skills
- Effective working with students
- Collaborative working style & strong work ethic
- Innovative, enthusiastic, energetic, flexible
- Experienced with needs of high school/college age students & their families
- Familiar with computer based transcripts, schedules, etc., Internet & software counseling resources

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS:

As part of your cover letter, please include your philosophy of education and how it relates to Gain Contact Group mission, vision, values, and goals. Resumes and letters of recommendation are welcome immediately.